A FIGHT FOR YOUR LIFE Is What is Expected When Eddie Kennedy and Jack Bennett Clash Before the Metropolitan Club Next Monday — Special Train From Pittsburgh.

In local sporting circles there is the patest interest in the approaching fight between Eddle Kennedy and Jack Bennett, of Pittsburg, scheduled to come off before the Metropolitan Athletic club next Monday night. These men are the puglistic idols of Pittsbuts; one-half of the overgrown village at the head of the Ohio believes that Kennedy's title to greatness cannot be questioned, while the other half see in Bennett's good right arm the instrument of execution that will pulverize Kennedy oft the face of the map. A recent effort to settle the disputed title to supremacy was a fizzle, owing to interference by the Allegheny county authorities, and now that the men signed to fight here, the Pittsburgers are to come down several hundred strong. They have chartered a special train on the Pennsylvania, which will arrive shortly before the hour for the fight, and depart about midnight. The this contest at $2, $3 and $5, which is surely reasonable enough. Patsy Gavin will act as referee. A first class preliminary bout of ten rounds will be put Billy Ryan, of Syracuse, is in the city looking for a scrap. He has met and defeated Jack McClelland, and was knocked out in a fight with Oscar Gardner by a chance blow in the nineteenth round. The Mets. will endeavor to sign McClelland and Ryan for a twentyround go in the near future.

A Peculiar Finish.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 17.—To-day's game had a peculiar finish. St. Louis had two out and two men on bases, when Donovan sent a grounder toward Demont. The ball hit Burkett, who was on his way to Mall hit liurkett, who was on his way to third, and the game was over. Donovan, the Hartford recruit, pitched well for Brooklyn, although he found McGraw a hard proposition. In five times at but the St. Louis captain had four pussess and was hit once. Considering the cold weather both sides fielded well, but the Brooklyns bunched their hits with better results. Score:
